2013 Summer Season

- Jun 14 Kearsarge Community Band
"Your hometown band" begins the summer season of great music from the Mary Haddad bandstand on the Sargent Common.
- Jun 21 East Bay Jazz Ensemble
Music from the big band era with a modern twist; a great jazz group making a return appearance by popular demand.
- Jun 28 Ghostrider
Vocals and musical energy that take you back decades to the early days of "popular music."
- July 05 Kearsarge Community Band
Concert as part of the Center for the Arts First Friday celebration.
- July 12 Granite State Stompers
The every-popular local Dixieland band will provide toe-tapping entertainment.
- July 19 Hopkinton Town Band
The excellent town band from our neighbors to the east will play the favorites of bandstand music.
- Aug 09 Moonlighters
For Big Band sound there is no better than the Moonlighters. Glenn Miller, Tommy Dorsey and Benny Goodman will all be there.
- Aug 16 Fountain Square Ramblers
Rambling through early New Orleans-style Dixieland, the Fountain Square Ramblers always put on a great show.
- Aug 23 Kearsarge Community Band
Closing out another season of great band music from the Mary Haddad bandstand, the Kearsarge Community Band will make you wish that summer is not just about over. Yes, they will play the "1812 Overture!"

In the event of rain, concerts will be held in the Whipple Memorial Town Hall adjacent to the Sargent Common
